The Treasury has resolved the RM2.1 billion allocation issue involving the Ministry of Rural and Regional Development between 2023 and 2025.

PUTRAJAYA: The issue concerning claims that the Rural and Regional Development Ministry (KKDW) had exceeded its allocation by RM2.1 billion between 2023 and 2025 has been resolved, Deputy Treasury Secretary-General (Policy) Datuk Zamzuri Abdul Aziz said.

"It's been resolved," he told reporters after the launch of the Islamic Accounting Standards for Baitulmal, Zakat and Waqf (PPIBZW) and the opening of the PPIBZW 2026 Premier Conference here today.

He was responding to a question on the matter following a call by UMNO Supreme Council member Datuk Razlan Rafii for Treasury Secretary-General Tan Sri Johan Mahmood Merican to explain the issue.

The issue arose following claims that KKDW spent RM1.8 billion in 2023 against an allocation of RM1.1 billion, RM2 billion in 2024 against RM1.3 billion, and RM2.3 billion in 2025 against RM1.6 billion, resulting in a total difference of RM2.1 billion.

On Sept 2, Johan explained that KKDW had made commitments and incurred expenditure exceeding its approved annual allocations for rural road projects.

He said the Finance Ministry (MoF) had worked with KKDW to address the matter, including restructuring the ministry's allocations based on priorities.

MoF also approved an additional RM300 million allocation for 2026 to help settle outstanding payments to contractors.

Tiada laporan dibuat berkait perbelanjaan lebih RM2.1 bilion KKDW

ABD. HALIM AMAN

PUTRAJAYA: Tiada laporan diterima berhubung dakwaan perbelanjaan berlebihan sebanyak RM2.1 bilion oleh Kementerian Kemajuan Desa dan Wilayah (KKDW).

Ketua Pesuruhjaya Suruhanjaya Pencegahan Rasuah Malaysia (SPRM), Datuk Seri Abd. Halim Aman berkata, pihaknya hanya mengetahui perkara itu menerusi laporan media.

"Kita baca melalui media massa sahaja. Belum ada lagi secara rasmi. Jadi saya tidak fikir wajar untuk saya komen.

"Apabila perkara itu diadukan secara rasmi kepada pihak kami, sudah tentu pihak kami akan masuk (menyiasat)," katanya dalam sidang akhbar selepas Majlis Sambutan Ulang Tahun Ke-59 SPRM dan Perhimpunan Bulanan SPRM di sini hari ini.

Semalam, Penasihat DAP, Lim Guan Eng menggesa SPRM mengambil tindakan terhadap Timbalan Perdana Menteri, Datuk Seri Dr. Ahmad Zahid Hamidi berhubung dakwaan perbelanjaan berlebihan sebanyak RM2.1 bilion oleh KKDW.

Guan Eng mendakwa, berdasarkan perangkaan Kementerian Kewangan (MoF), KKDW membelanjakan RM1.8 bilion pada 2023 berbanding peruntukan diluluskan RM1.1 bilion, RM2 bilion pada 2024 berbanding RM1.3 bilion dan RM2.3 bilion pada 2025 berbanding peruntukan RM1.6 bilion.

Menurutnya, jumlah perbelanjaan melebihi peruntukan yang diluluskan mencecah RM2.1 bilion dalam tempoh tiga tahun dari 2023 hingga 2025 ketika KKDW di bawah pentadbiran Ahmad Zahid.

Tiada aduan rasmi diterima berhubung dakwaan perbelanjaan berlebihan berjumlah RM2.1 bilion membabitkan Kementerian Kemajuan Desa dan Wilayah (KKDW) di bawah pentadbiran Timbalan Perdana, Menteri Datuk Seri Dr Ahmad Zahid Hamidi.

Ketua Pesuruhjaya Suruhanjaya Pencegahan Rasuah Malaysia (SPRM), Datuk Seri Abd Halim Aman berkata, pihaknya sedia membuka kertas siasatan jika ada aduan rasmi diterima.

"Kita baca melalui media massa sahaja. Belum ada lagi secara rasmi. Jadi saya tidak fikir wajar untuk saya komen berhubung perkara itu.

"Apabila perkara itu diadukan secara rasmi kepada pihak kami, sudah tentu pihak kami akan masuk (menyiasat)," katanya pada sidang media selepas menyempurnakan Majlis Sambutan Ulang Tahun Ke-59 SPRM dan Perhimpunan Bulanan SPRM di sini, semalam.

Sebelum ini media melaporkan, Penasihat DAP, Lim Guan Eng menggesa SPRM mengambil tindakan terhadap Ahmad Zahid berhubung dakwaan perbelanjaan berlebihan sebanyak RM2.1 bilion oleh KKDW.

Guan Eng dilapor berkata, Ahmad Zahid dan KKDW sepatutnya berdepan tindakan serta siasatan sama seperti pengurusan Universiti Teknologi MARA (UiTM) berhubung dakwaan salah laku kewangan membabitkan anak syarikatnya, UiTM Holdings Sdn Bhd.

Beliau memetik perangkaan Kementerian Kewangan (MoF) yang menunjukkan KKDW membelanjakan RM1.8 bilion pada 2023 berbanding peruntukan diluluskan RM1.1 bilion, RM2 bilion pada 2024 berbanding RM1.3 bilion, dan RM2.3 bilion pada 2025 berbanding peruntukan RM1.6 bilion.

Sebelum ini, Ketua Setiausaha Perbendaharaan, Tan Sri Johan Mahmood Merican dilaporkan berkata, seluruh peruntukan yang diperuntukkan bagi KKDW sudah disalurkan sepenuhnya.

Kekangan proses pembayaran kontraktor berlaku kerana dana berkenaan sudah dibelanjakan sepenuhnya oleh KKDW.

Beliau dilapor berkata, MoF malah sudah meluluskan peruntukan tambahan berjumlah RM300 juta bagi membantu menyelesaikan tunggakan bayaran kepada kontraktor terbabit.

MACC chief says agency will step in if official report is made

PUTRAJAYA

THE Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission (MACC) has not received any official complaint regarding allegations of RM2.1 billion in excess spending by the Rural and Regional Development Ministry.

MACC chief commissioner Datuk Seri Abd Halim Aman said yesterday the commission only learned of the matter through media reports.

"We have only read about it in the media. There is nothing official yet. Therefore, I do not think it is appropriate for me to comment.

"Once the matter is officially reported to us, we will certainly step in," he said following MACC's 59th anniversary celebration here.

On Wednesday, DAP adviser Lim Guan Eng had reiterated his call for MACC to investigate the ministry over the purported excess spending.

He had earlier urged for an investigation on Sept 4.

Previously, Deputy Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Ahmad Zahid Hamidi, who is also rural and regional development minister, had said his ministry would not spend beyond government-approved amounts.

He added that ministry expenditure strictly adhered to allocations specified in the national budget or approved by the government. Bernama
